067 - Shelter

Verse 1

And you're drown-ing in the sun-shine,
as it pours down from the sky.
And there's some-thing stir-ring in your heart,
bright col-ours fill your eyes.
As from here to the far hor-i-zon,
your beau-ty does un-fold.
And oh, you look so love-ly,
Dress-ed i-n green and gold.

Verse 2

You can al-most touch the o-cean,
shim-'ring in, the dis-tant haze.
As you stand there on the moun-tain,
on this love-li-est day of days.
'Round half the world you've drift-ed,
left no wild oats un-sown:
but now your view ha-s shift-ed,
and you think you've just come home.

Verse 3

(Spoken solo over Choir humming) To the home-less and
the hun-gry,

may we al-ways o-pen doors.

*(Orator entry point "To the homeless and the hungry...") May
the rest-less and the wear-y

find safe har-bour on our shores.

May she al-ways be our 'Dream-time' place
our spirit's glad rel-ease:

may she al-ways be ou-r shel-ter,

may we al-ways live in peace.

Verse 3 repeat

(All sing) To the home-less and the hun-gry,
may we al-ways o-pen doors.

May the rest-less and the wear-y
find safe har-bour on our shores.

May she al-ways be our 'Dream-time' place
our spirit's glad rel-ease:

may she al-ways be ou-r shel-ter,

may we al-ways live in peace.
