GiGi

The title song from the 1958 Academy Award-winning film GiGi, written by Frederick Loewe and Alan Jay Lerner, also Academy Award winner for Best Original Song in 1958

Gi-gi, am I a fool with-out a mind or have I mere-ly been to blind - to re-a-lise?
Oh Gi-gi,
why you've been grow-ing up be-fore my eyes!

Gi-gi, you're not at all that fun-ny,
awk-ward lit-tle girl - I knew.
Oh no! O-ver night there's been a breath-less change in you.

Oh, Gi-gi, while you were trembling on the brink, was I out yon-der some-where blink-ing at a star?
Oh, Gi-gi. Have I been stand-ing up too close or back too far?

When did your sparkle turn to fi-re?
And your warmth be-come de-si-re?
Oh, what mi-ra-cle has made you the way you are?
