126 - A STAR FELL FROM HEAVEN

Verse 1

When th-e moon is soft-ly beam-ing, and th-e world be-neath is dream-ing, the stars come down from Hea-ven to earth Ev-'r-y star has got a du-ty, to d-e-liv-er love and beau-ty, and fill the love-ly plac-es with mirth

Chorus

A Star Fell From Hea-ven one beau-ti-ful night, bring-ing me a glimpse of de-light from the skies a-bove

A Star Fell From Hea-ven and showed me the way,

how to be con-tent-ed and gay,
for it brought me love

pianissimo It whis-pered to me 'You are won-der-ful,

beau-ti-ful, heav-en-ly, and you are mine dear!'

A Star Fell From Heav-en and soon made me see that you had been waiting for me: how I thank my Star

Verse 2

Love i-s like the rar-est pre-sent, makes yo-ur life both sad and plea-sant, and fills your heart with bliss and sur-prise If a-t times you're feel-ing lone-ly, all yo-u have to do is on-ly to send a sil-ent wish to the skies.

Chorus

A Star Fell From Hea-ven one beau-ti-ful night,
bring-ing me a glimpse of de-light

way,

how to be con-tent-ed and gay,
for it brought me love

pianissimo It whis-pered to me 'You are
won-der-ful,

my Star
